

Why Don't We Dance?

Chorus: Why don't we dance
How has this come to be
Oh Lexie can't you hear the music playing now
Why don't we dance
I'll take your hand in mine
Let's leave the past behind
Sometime soon somehow

Vs (1) The walls that stand between
The dreams of peaceful means
Are not only made of stone
The music and the dance
Are weapons of romance
But don't stop dancing on the shore

Vs (2) An offered hand
A bridge too far
I only wanted to understand

This tale has centuries
Of dangerous memories
But watch them
Dancing on the sand

*Composed and sung by Paul O'Brien for the "House of Ireland" on the occasion of the "Second Ecumenical Kirchentag, 12.-
16.5.2010, Munich*